Quasi play on digital music consumption

About stock: Saregama India (Saregama) is India's oldest music label owned by RPSG Group with ~1.5+ lacs songs, which is monetized over various formats such as digitals (streaming, YouTube), physical (Carvaan) and television.

 Apart from music, it is also into TV serials /(Tamil), creates low budget films as well as web series for OTT platforms through Yoodlee Films and has Artists and Events management business

Investment Rationale

- Licensing Revenues to remain robust: The management guidance for licensing revenue (B2B) growth at 22-25%, will be led by higher share in new content across Hindi and regional languages. The company aims to lap up ~30% share in new movie content. Additionally, the company is looking to pick up minority stakes and eventually moving to an absolute majority in regional music companies, allowing the regional labels to run the company for next couple of years. We estimate ~24% CAGR in B2B (licensing) music sales in FY23- 25E to ₹ 692 crore as monetisation of existing IPs via digital platforms and new music acquisition as well as catalogue acquisition will drive growth. Furthermore, Transition to subscription model (very miniscule currently), can be key game changer as the company has indicated that streaming platforms income could go up by ~ 150% to 300% as the market moves from a free model to a paid model.
- New acquisition; other segment to add to growth: Saregama recently announced acquisition of Pocket Aces Pictures is a complementary growth enabler with content positioning, age group focus, digital presence and distribution strength (through influencer access), Most importantly, access to ~95Mn digital followers of Pocket Aces coupled with influencers and creates a big marketing leverage as well as a pitch point for content acquisition and well as marketing. Consequently, the company expects the combined entity revenues to grow at 27-28% on medium term given the synergy. We estimate ~33% CAGR in TV & films, Events in FY23-25E to ₹ 279 crore, also aided by Pocket Aces consolidation

Rating and Target Price

- We have a positive view on Saregama India as we expect digital monetisation to provide sustained growth momentum. Synergy from Pocket Aces and accelerated opportunity fructification in new areas like Web Series, Artist management, etc., can provide further growth leg
- We assign BUY rating with target price placed at ₹445, wherein we have valued the company at 34x PE on FY25E EPS.
